The image is a screenshot of a blog post on the website SoulKitchen.fr. At the top, there is a navigation bar with a red background and white text: "SK SOUL KITCHEN" on the left, and a menu with icons and text: "Photos", "SK sessions", "Concerts", "News", "Chroniques", "Son du jour", and "I...". Below the navigation bar, the main title of the post is "Rone – Tohu Bohu" in large white font. Underneath the title, it says "Par Fred • 3.11.2012" and "CHRONIQUES" in a white box. There are social media sharing buttons for Facebook (3 likes), Twitter (3 tweets), Google+ (2 +1s), and Pinterest (1 pin). To the left of the main text is a small image of the album cover for "RONE TOHU BOHU", which features a stylized, colorful, geometric structure. The main text of the review is in white on a dark background. It starts with "J'aurai bien aimé dire le plus grand bien de 'Tohu Bohu' de Rone sorti ces jours ci mais rien n'y fait, je n'accroche pas plus que ça au deuxième essai d'Erwan Castex." followed by a paragraph of critique. The review concludes with "Je me consolerais certainement une prochaine fois en voyant Rone en live où sa musique prend une toute autre dimension."
